JOB OFFER SPECIALIZED EDUCATOR

Do you enjoy working with children and want to make a difference in a social environment by contributing your expertise in special education? Do you want to be part of a close-knit team and a professional family that values teamwork, communication and collaboration among colleagues?

WIAIH (The West Island Association for the Intellectually Handicapped) is a charitable organization that aims to increase opportunities for people with intellectual disabilities or autism spectrum disorder, support their families and sensitize the community. The Pat Roberts Developmental Centre is ideal for children who demonstrate developmental delays, both diagnosed and undiagnosed. It provides an appropriate learning experience through playful interactions for children from birth to 6 years of age while supporting their families in a positive and proactive manner.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Under the supervision of the Pat Roberts Developmental Centre Manager, the specialized educator will have as main responsibilities:

- Care for small groups of children with special needs by planning and organizing group activities that are stimulating and developmentally appropriate for each child; ensure their safety and well-being;
- Incorporate goals targeted by other professionals, i.e. occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, etc.
- Identify the most relevant needs of each child in cooperation with parents and other professionals involved, organize interventions and assess their impact;
- Communicate relevant information to the families regarding the child's development and progress;
- Support parents' efforts to encourage children's independence and learning in their home environment;
- Promote the parent's autonomy so that he/she can act with the child;
- Write an observation report three times a year describing each child in all aspects of the development (receptive and expressive language, autonomy, emotional regulation, gross and fine motor skills, social skills, play skills);
- Maintain classrooms organized and in good condition.
